

MEGA BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Mega Blood Donation Camp was organized by Bharati Vidyapeeth College of Engineering, Navi Mumbai, on the occasion of Dr. Patangraoji Kadam Saheb's Birth Anniversary.

Bharati Vidyapeeth College of Engineering, Navi Mumbai, commemorated the birth anniversary of Dr. Patangraoji Kadam Saheb on January 12, 2024, with a mega blood donation camp, emphasizing the college's commitment to community welfare.

The camp, held on the college premises, witnessed active participation from students and faculty contributing significantly to addressing the critical need for blood in healthcare institutions.

Outcome:

The mega blood donation camp was a tremendous success, collecting a substantial number of blood units. It showcased the college's dedication to societal well-being and resource mobilization for a noble cause.

Reflecting the college community's dedication to social causes, students and faculty actively participated, showcasing a collective responsibility for societal welfare.

